

HISTORY & PURPOSE

The Band Camp for Adult Musicians has grown and evolved in many ways since it was founded by John Fleming at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania in 1989. The purpose of the camp is to bring together brass, woodwind and percussion performers who have a love for concert band music.

Now, more than twenty years after its inception, the Band Camp will enjoy its tenth summer at Allegheny College. Located in northwestern Pennsylvania, Allegheny's picturesque campus is the perfect backdrop for a week of festive music-making. Founded nearly two centuries ago, Allegheny is among the country's oldest and most distinguished colleges.

CONDUCTORS

Captain Michelle Rakers has appeared as conductor of the Monarch Brass ensemble at the 2010 International Women's Brass conference in Toronto Canada and the St. Louis Symphony Brass for the Brass Spectacular of 2009. Captain Rakers joined the "President's Own" United States Marine Band in May 1998 as a trumpeter/cornetist. She was appointed Assistant Director of the Marine Band, commissioned a first lieutenant in July 2004 and promoted to her current rank by the Commandant of the Marine Corps in 2006. She is both the first female Assistant Director and first female commissioned officer in the history of "The President's Own."

The conductor for the second week will be Colonel Timothy Foley, who served as the director of the U.S. Marine Band from 1996 until his retirement in July 2004. During his 36-year career, Colonel Foley has served The President's Own as a clarinetist, assistant director, and as the Marine Band's 26th director. As director of the Marine Band, Colonel Foley served as music advisor to the White House, regularly conducting the band at the Executive Mansion. During his tenure as director, the band celebrated its 200th birthday and was the only musical organization to be inducted into the American Classical Music Hall of Fame.

INSTRUCTORS

The principal players for each section of the Band Camp Concert Band will be faculty members from several colleges and universities. They will also teach master classes on their respective instruments. This distinguished group of performers will help camp participants improve their instrumental technique and musicianship.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING

Seventy guests may be housed in College Court, Allegheny's air conditioned, townhouse-style residence hall. College Court consists of suites with four single bedrooms adjoining a common living room and kitchen. Space in College Court will be reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. Campers not already organized into groups of four will be placed in suites with other campers.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

The Meadville area has a large selection of hotels, motels, and alternative lodging options. For a complete list of recommended establishments, please visit www.allegheny.edu/visitors.
