Preserving Together the History of the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES
The House Archives provides an opportunity to gain valuable hands-on experience in the field of archival research and management. Interns work with historical and political files, gaining knowledge of the historical context and political climate of Pennsylvania. The internship is an excellent opportunity for students interested in pursuing a career in archival management.

Interns will be required to:
- Conduct research on specific historical topics
- Create and maintain digital archives
- Assist in the preservation of historical records
- Participate in community outreach events

Interns will be evaluated based on their contribution to the archives and their ability to apply the skills learned during the internship.

This internship is open to undergraduate and graduate students. Preference will be given to students with a strong interest in history, politics, and archival management.

Internship duration is flexible, with options for full-time, part-time, or flexible schedules.

Applications are due by [date]. For more information, please contact [Name] at [email].
