

Station 3: Animal Bones

Instructions:

Examine carefully the different skulls. Only handle them to identify the species (the names are written on the bottom).

Why do the different species have such radically different skull structures? What characteristics of each animal can you see expressed in the physical components of the bones?

Beaver-

Otter -

Raccoon-

Deer-