Teachers from the Pittsburgh area, SW NY and NW PA enjoyed a fun-filled day that involved learning more about stream geology. They took a scenic and educational tour of French Creek by canoe. They had the opportunity to learn more about the uniqueness of French Creek and why it is an important waterway.