Teachers were given the opportunity to delve into the materials in all the Creek Connections Watershed Resource Modules, which are available for loan. Teachers were given their very own Lorax and Creekers demonstrated how to use him with classes. Finally, we took a field trip to French Creek to practice the water chemistry test kits, physical assessment and see what cool critters are calling the creek home.