Teachers gathered at Allegheny College to prepare for the upcoming Creek year. Also got to learn about a new loaner module featuring aquaponics developed by Professor T.J. Eatmon and his students.