Felipe Coronel Rueda (b. 1924)/arr. Iturriaga

*When far away from you, the heart will want to descend in pain.
In his violent groan I will remember his laugh: the vibration that was a song of love, a hymn of peace.
Then no pain will be there and it will all be happiness. No, no, I don't tell you good-bye, Little Star from the South, because I will be soon at your side once again, and be able to smell the keen fragrance again... and bells of great success will ring forever in my heart. ³*
